(6.b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

7. Directors

(1) Benefits and payments to charity directors and connected persons

(1.a) General provisions

(1.a.i) No director or connected person may:

[1.a.i.a] buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

[1.a.i.b] sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity;

[1.a.i.c] be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity;

[1.a.i.d] receive any other financial benefit from the charity;

unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause 7(1)(b) of this article, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission.

(1.a.ii) In this article a "financial benefit" means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(1.b) Scope and powers permitting directors' or connected persons' benefits.

(1.b.i) A director or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity provided that a majority of the directors do not benefit in this way.

(1.b.ii) A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011.

(1.b.iii) Subject to sub-clause (c) of this article a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person.

(1.b.iv) A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).

(1.b.v) A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.

(1.b.vi) A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

(1.c) Payment for supply of goods only - controls

The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (b) of this article if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1.c.i) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity or its directors (as the case may be) and the director or connected person supplying the goods ("the supplier") under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.

(1.c.ii) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.

(1.c.iii) The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

(1.c.iv) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.

(1.c.v) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.

(1.c.vi) The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book.

(1.c.vii) A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article (b).

(1.d) In sub-clauses (b) and (c) of this article:

(1.d.i) "charity" includes any company in which the charity:

[1.d.i.a] holds more than 50% of the shares; or

[1.d.i.b] controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or

[1.d.i.c] has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company.

(1.d.ii) "connected person" includes any person within the definition in article 25 "Interpretation".

(2) Declaration of directors' interests

A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

(3) Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties

(3.a) If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

(3.a.i) the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;

(3.a.ii) the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting; and

(3.a.iii) the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

(3.b) In this article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person.

(6.d.ii) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

(7) Delivery of proxy notices

(7.a) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person.

(7.b) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
